DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The specification does not disclose how the wood layer is impregnated under high pressure and vacuum since pressure is conventionally considered the opposite of vacuum.

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is unclear what steps are occurring in what order in the claim. It is unclear whether the paper is dried and hardened prior to placement on the wood as in Figure 4 and paragraph [0017] or if the paper is placed on the wood and then the combination is dried and hardened as the claim appears to indicate such in lines 6-7 and the specification appears to also suggest that in paragraph [0017]. It is unclear what is required by the description that the process improves the strength of the wood to become fire-resistant, etc. It is unclear what is required by the claim as there appears to be no transitional phrase between the preamble and the body, and it is unclear what is in the preamble and what is required by the claims. In line 4, it is unclear if "another sheet of white paper" indicates there is a first sheet of white paper or is referring to the color paper which is not considered to be white.

The lack of an art rejection does not mean that amending the claims to fix the 112 problems would render the claim allowable. Rather the claim is currently so confusing, an accurate search cannot be performed. It is strongly suggested to amend the claim to conform to U.S. drafting practice.
